I am occasionally asked why I spend so much time offering my insights when many observe that there is neither an obligation nor financial need. The reason is quite simple, I enjoy the process.

Everyone is capable of being terrific investors, you just need to remember that there is serious work to be done by YOU in this business of investing. Sadly some people, particularly viewers of the Sky Business Channel, just buy whatever stocks are mentioned on TV. I ask that you all read my latest blog post, and before making an investment decision, remember that my comments should only be seen as an additional opinion to the essential requirement to conduct your own research.

About Me:

Rogers 20-year background includes equity analysis, trading and investment banking.

He started his own show in 1997 founding a boutique funds management business in Balmain, Sydney. Roger also founded and floated an investment company on the Australian Stock Exchange in 2004. He subsequently sold both businesses and an investment education business in 2005 and 2007 to a listed company.

Roger is particularly passionate about making successful stock market investing within reach for everyone. He is a two-time winner of the Securities Institute of Australias best presenter award and has a chapter devoted to him, his investing style and performance in Eli Greenblatts book: Young Guns on the Stock Market Meet Australias New Breed of Money Makers. Alan Kohler has referred to Roger as one of the nations smartest and most successful value investors and Ross Greenwood has described him as one of Australia's best-regarded stock market investors and as a man who invests well, not often.
